Interfaith Travel Study

Hendricks Chapel invites students to an interfaith travel study to Jerusalem over Spring Break 2009. The travel study is an exploration of the rich history of the three traditions – Judaism, Christianity and Islam, in the region. It is aimed at developing a community of learners who strive to contribute greater understanding on the issues of Jewish-Christian-Muslim relations.

The study is open to Jewish, Christian and Muslim graduate and undergraduate students from both SU and ESF. For more info download the application and itinerary.
