Music Beyond Borders – International Education Week 2012 is a smash!

Music Beyond Borders : Photo Gallery on Daily Orange

Last night, SCIS proudly hosted performers from around the world who dazzled SU in “Music Beyond Borders”, an event designed to illustrate the intercultural connectedness of music. The free event held in Schine Underground was open to the public as part of Syracuse University’s celebration of International Education Week 2012 and featured 14 unique acts mixed with multimedia narratives.

The Daily Orange reported:

“The engaged audience couldn’t take their eyes off the international performances, which included energetic Indian dancing, calm Chinese instrumental music and soulful American music. All of the performers were a part of the SU community or from the surrounding area.”

and

“The powerful performance made everyone in Schine Underground dance, bringing both audience members and artists to the stage. Despite the difference in cultures, everyone was in rhythm.”

when he is presented with the Chancellor’s Medal for Outstanding Achievement

His Royal Highness Prince Sultan bin Salman bin Abdulaziz al-Saud

His Royal Highness Prince Sultan bin Salman, president of the Saudi Commission for Tourism and Antiquities (SCTA), chairman of the board of trustees of the Prince Salman Center for Disabilities Research in Riyadh and the first Arab astronaut, will be awarded Syracuse University’s prestigious Chancellor’s Medal for Outstanding Achievement.

When: Friday, Nov 16th at 11:45 am

Where: Maxwell Auditorium Foyer

Prince Sultan is being recognized for:

- his leadership role as president of the Saudi Commission for Tourism and Antiquities in fostering a better understanding of and appreciation for Saudi Arabia, its people and its rich cultural heritage;
- his key role in helping launch a collaborative partnership between SU and Princess Nora Bint Abdul Rahman University, the first all-female university in Riyadh and one of the first and largest women’s universities in the Middle East
- his long-time deep dedication to scientific exploration and knowledge. In 1985, he became the first Arab and Muslim in space as a member of the international crew of the Space Shuttle Discovery; and
- his commitment to promoting services and research for those with disabilities

Celebrate Thanksgiving in a noble way

Next week, The Syracuse Rescue Mission anticipates serving at least 1,800 Thanksgiving Day dinners. Last year, the agency served 1,750 meals on Thanksgiving-up from 1,514 in 2010.

On Thanksgiving Day, a traditional dinner of turkey with all the trimmings will be delivered to elderly and homebound people in the community starting at 9am. Then, from 11am to 12:30pm, dinner will be served in the Rescue Mission dining hall, located at 148 Gifford Street, for any individual or family that won't be able to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner on their own. The agency staff has been roasting and freezing 50 turkeys that will translate into 450 pounds of turkey meat served that day.

Donations of turkeys are still needed along with seasoned bread or breadcrumbs for stuffing, instant mashed or whole potatoes, large #10 cans of corn, dinner rolls, pies and coffee-regular and decaffeinated. You can also contact the Syracuse Rescue Mission to volunteer your time and participate in a heartwarming U.S. tradition in a unique and special way.

Interested in donating or volunteering?: Contact the Rescue Mission at 315-472-6251.

“Food, Inc.” screening at Hendricks Chapel

As part of the Sustainable Community Film Series, award winning documentary film – ‘Food Inc.’ will be screened at Hendricks Chapel. The 5-part film series aims to address different sustainability challenges.

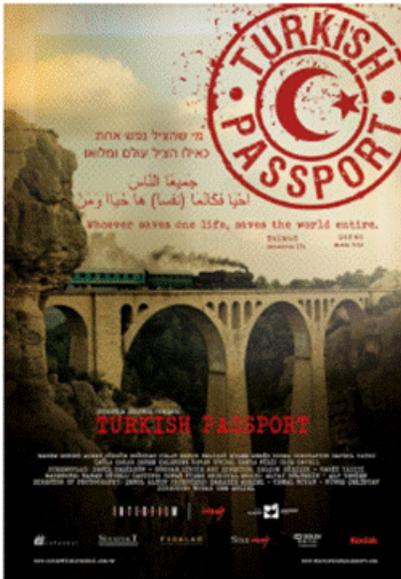

When: Thursday, Nov 15 at 6:15pm

Where: Noble Room, Hendricks Chapel

A modest meal will be provided to attendees before each film gets under way. After the movie, a conversation starter based upon the feature's sustainability implications will be facilitated by Thomas Perrault, associate professor of geography in the Maxwell School, and J. Richard Welsh, professor of food studies in the David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics. Admission is free and open to students, faculty and staff.

Film Screening – The Turkish Passport

Moynihan European Research Center will be showcasing Türk Pasaportu - The Turkish Passport, a Turkish movie.

When: Tuesday, Nov 27th at 5pm

Where: Tolley 110

Cost: Free

Note: The movie will be shown with English Subtitles

About the movie - The Turkish Passport tells the story of diplomats posted to Turkish Embassies and Consulates in several European countries, who saved numerous Jews during the Second World War. Based on the testimonies of witnesses, who traveled to Istanbul to find safety, the Turkish Passport also uses written historical documents and archive footage to tell this story of rescue and bring to light the events of the time. The diplomats did not only save the lives of Turkish Jews. They also rescued foreign Jews condemned to a certain death by giving them Turkish Passports. In this dark period of history, their actions lit the candle of hope and allowed these people to travel to Turkey, where they found light.

SU Sports and Trending News

Men's Football: Missouri Tigers to lock horns with the Orange

Coach Doug Marrone has the Orange (5-5, 4-2) focused on its final nonconference game, a road game against the SEC's Missouri Tigers (5-5, 2-5). Both teams are seeking to become bowl eligible with a sixth win on Saturday. This Saturday marks Marrone's first games versus an SEC foe. SU is 11-10-1 all-time against current SEC teams.

The Tigers are a perfect 3-0 in nonconference games and have won 18 straight nonconference games at home. Read the full story on SUAthletics.

Women's Field Hockey: Orange, Tar Heels meet in Final Four

The No. 5 Syracuse field hockey team (19-2) heads to Norfolk, Va. this week to compete for the second time in program history at the NCAA Final Four. The Orange plays No. 1 North Carolina (22-1) in the national semifinals on Friday at 2 p.m. with the winner facing the winner of No. 2 Princeton (19-1) and No. 6 Maryland (18-5) for the NCAA title on Sunday at 1 p.m. All games will take place at Old Dominion University's L.R. Hill Sports Complex. Read the full story on SUAthletics.

Veteran's Day celebrated in full spirit

Monday's Veterans Day ceremonies began at 5 a.m. with the reading of the names of the more than 6,000 military personnel who have lost their lives since the war on terror began. The program continued at 11 a.m. in Hendricks Chapel as multiple Grammy and Country Music Award nominee Michael Peterson doffed his black cowboy hat and invited the crowd to join him in singing the national anthem.

More than 100 students, staff, veterans and members of the community filled the central rows of pews in Hendricks Chapel, with the 198th Army Band seated above. Lieutenant Colonel Miguel Sapp, a medaled Iraq veteran, executive director of development and alumni relations at SU, and a graduate of the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Law, then requested a moment of silence for fallen veterans and their loved ones.
