

If you're new to Syracuse, we're piloting a program that provides short-term, on-campus housing while you search for and inspect apartments in person. To learn more about this opportunity, please click here to request more information. Note that availability is limited and we need your completed request for information by July 16, 2018.