The Orange Dialogue for Peace will be occurring at Camp Huntington on Raquette Lake in the beautiful Adirondack Park February 24-26, 2017

What is Orange Dialogue for Peace?

- A free program, funded by the Division of Student Affairs at Syracuse University.
- Participants work together in the context of fun, outdoor challenges and teambuilding activities, and engage in student driven dialogue about the needs, concerns, fears and hopes of their present day lives, nations and societies.
- The goal is to establish mutual understanding and trust, and help to lead the world to move toward sustainable world peace and friendship.

If you have ever experienced an unresolved inter-group conflict that you would like to explore or if you are simply interested in experiencing a weekend full of fun and interactive dialogue with an inclusive group of students and being part of a unique story-telling experience, then please consider participating in the Syracuse University Orange Dialogue for Peace program. Outdoor Activities will include; cross country skiing, snowshoeing, sauna and polar plunge!

This is an application for a spot on the trip, and does not guarantee that you will have a space reserved for you. Please fill out the application as best you can and return it by email to sacatucc@syr.edu by Sunday 2/12/17
