Attention All Returning International Students Peer Assistant Volunteer Opportunity

Remember how welcomed the student volunteers made you feel when you first arrived at the Slutzker Center?

We are once again in need of reliable and welcoming students during the Summer & Fall of 2017 arrival process to greet the new international students.
 Peer Assistants are unpaid volunteers who support the Slutzker Center in its mission to support and to serve Syracuse University's international student population.

This is a great opportunity to meet new international students, to form new friendships, build your resume and give back to the University community.

If interested, go to the Slutzker Center Website Programs and Activities Peer Assistants and download, complete and submit you application to : farahman@syr.edu

Application deadline is Friday, March 31, 2017.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME 2017

Syracuse Symposium, Urban Video Project to Present
'Haunted Ethnography' Screening, Artist Q&A

Carl Elsaesser's "Project Gasbuggy" (2014) on the outside of the Everson Museum of Art

Syracuse Symposium continues its yearlong look at "Place" with an evening of video and experimental film.

Urban Video Project (UVP) will present a program titled "Haunted Ethnography: new experimental documentary" on Thursday, March 9, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in Hosmer Auditorium of the Everson Museum of Art (401 Harrison St., Syracuse). Mounted in conjunction with a UVP group exhibition by the same name, the program features six works by a trio of emerging filmmakers: Carl Elsaesser, Sky Hopinka and João Vieira Torres. All three will participate in a Q&A, followed by an artist reception in the Everson Plaza.

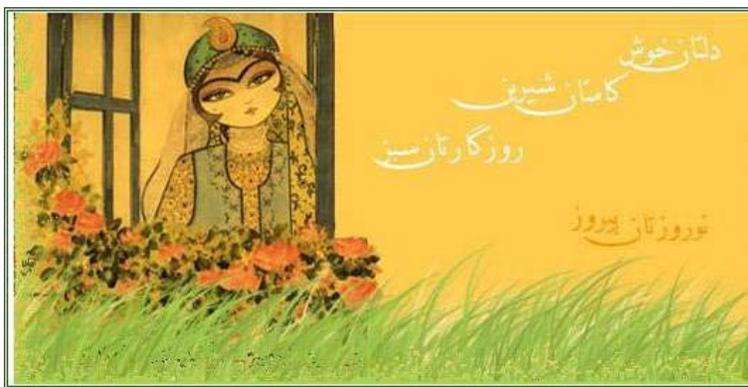

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact the Humanities Center in the College of Arts and Sciences at 315.443.7192 or visit humcenter.syr.edu.
